AMENDMENT 1: WHAT IS IT?

VOTE AGAINST on TUESDAY MAY 8th!
(from All of us NC, www.allofusnc.org)

Let's all go to the polls and vote against the amendment May 8, 2012. North Carolina families come in many forms: single-parent, multi-generational, senior citizens living together and supporting each other, straight and same-sex couples. Same-sex marriage is already banned in NC. The family discrimination amendment could jeopardize all kinds of households: "Marriage between one man and one woman is the only domestic legal union that shall be valid or recognized in this state." This amendment would:

- *Ban the state from allowing unmarried couples to enter domestic partnerships and civil unions
- *Potentially impact domestic violence protections; child custody and visitation rights; wills; estates; and medical decisions for all unmarried partners

*Take away the domestic partner benefits currently available to employees of eight local governments

Let's vote against the amendment on May 8th and show the power of love and solidarity on Southern soil.

10 REASONS TO VOTE AGAINST DISCRIMINATION IN OUR CONSTITUTION
by the NC NAACP, www.ncnaacp.org

1. For 102 years the NAACP's mission has always been to "ensure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights of all persons." We have always opposed any custom, tradition, practice, law or constitutional amendment that denies any rights, privileges, or opportunities to any person which can legally be extended to others. We should never codify discrimina-

We should never codify discrimination, division and hate into our Constitution. All people have a right to equal protection under the law.

2. Many civic and faith organizations have membership qualifications. But every person in North Carolina and the nation are protected by Constitutions that allow no racial, religious, or gender tests.

3. North Carolina should not reverse its proud history of expanding the rights of all persons in its constitutional amendments by now promoting an amendment that restricts the rights of some. ...

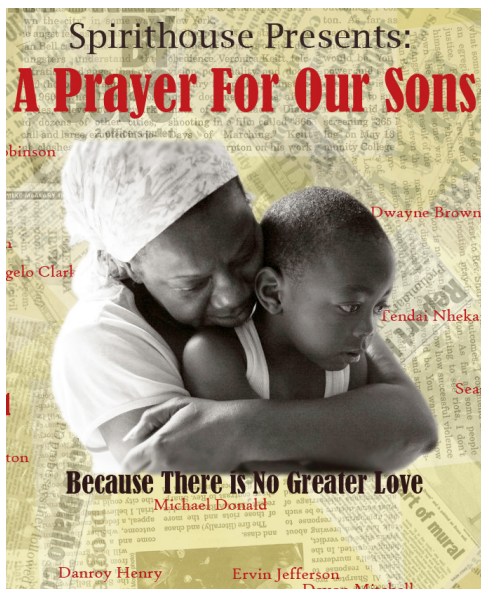

10. The marriage we should be concerned about is the marriage of corporate money and politics. Ultra-conservative corporations have tied the knot with an ugly set of anti-public policies that undermine public education, voter protection, workers rights, protection from payday lenders, health care reform and other programs established for the public good.
