

Season 12, Week 3 June
3rd, 2013 - 3:26 pm

Bakery Happenings:

- Today some bakers & members are gathering at the bakery & heading out to Moral Monday in Raleigh. We're bring some yummy tomato cheesie rolls & cinnamon rolls to hand out folks & we're also leaving some behind so folks that get arrested have something to eat when they are released. Looking forward to seeing other folks out there!
- We'll be at the Chapel Hill Farmer's Market this Saturday, June 8th. Emily Chavez & Serena Sebring will be starting their first vending day for Bread Uprising with Noah. And then will be taking over & vending for the bakery many Saturdays this summer. Come by & visit if you're close. It's in the University Mall Parking lot.

Community Events:

- Moral Mondays Continue: Today is week 6 of nonviolent & peaceful protests through a Pray-In, Sing-In and Teach-In at the NC General Assembly, called for by the NC NAACP. Those who wish to risk arrest should meet at 3pm. Those who wish to be supporters, please meet the group at Bicentennial Mall, across the street from the
- NC General Assembly, at 5:30pm. E-mail info@naacpnc.org for more information.
